

Annette Oppenlander | Author

Presentations and Workshops

I. Examples of themed historical presentations

- Best and worst of living in the Middle Ages, including a fun medieval quiz
- Just how wild was the Wild West
- Surviving the Fatherland: How two German children experienced WWII and its aftermath (a true story)
- The American Civil War through the eyes of common soldiers and slaves
- The Vietnam War debacle
- New for 2020: The Down and Dirty about Hitler's Mass Evacuation Program for Children and Youth

II. Examples of workshops/presentations for writers

- Beginnings: How to launch your story with style
  - Publishing for the U.S. market
  - Developing great characters, including 90 things to know about your character
  - Dialogue in fiction: What in the world are you trying to say?
- Taking your writing to the next level

III. Readings

Available from all published works

IV. Signings

Available where books are sold

Details

- Suggested duration: 45 minutes to 1.5 hours, depending on need/program (or multiple days for longer programs/workshops)
- Technical requirements: microphone, beamer, screen, laptop or connecting cables for MAC laptop
- Audience age: teen through senior citizen
- Readings: shorter timeframes are better, interspersed with audiovisual elements
- Customized presentations/workshops available

Presentation and teaching experience at the following organizations

Ivy Tech Community College, Indiana University, VHS Solingen, Schools (U.S. high schools/German gymnasium), libraries, conferences, festivals, book fairs, bookstores, retirement homes, private events

Honorarium

$250 and up plus travel expenses (please contact me for an individual quote)

Erfer Str. 27 | 42657 Solingen | Germany | +49.1590.1199078
Annette.oppenlander@yahoo.com | annetteoppenlander.com